In the Upside-Down World

EPISODE #15

By Warren Litzman

The many shootings in today's world is a symptom of a world upside-down. We pray for safety in our society and for healing for the victims. Yet the major problem in the world goes unchallenged—upside-down in all its endeavors, regardless of the problem in question. The problem with this world cannot be fixed by government, politics, education, money, or religion. In fact, the problem with this world cannot be fixed by man at all. This is because the problem is spiritual; it is a God-problem. And only God, by His Son, Jesus Christ, is capable of solving the problem.

You see, it is like this. God staged the world to be a better place at the Cross, where Christ died for the sin of mankind. God only asked one thing—that humanity believe on the Lord Jesus Christ as their Savior. And in return, he promised a better world. Sadly, most worldly people, most religious people, most saved people, most politicians and even most theologians—have placed little or no hope in what Jesus did at the Cross.

The New-Agers are doing everything they can to destroy the message of the Cross of Christ. The religious people and the “progressive” intellectual people have decided that the Cross is of no value and have devised other ways to save humanity without the Cross. The Judeo-Christians (so called erroneously) have returned to idolatry, worshipping the Law of Moses and its ideas, and have dropped the Cross of Christ where total salvation is centered. Long ago, the politics in education ruled out the Cross, ruled out praying in the classroom, ruled out teaching Church history as a valued aspect of history, and found ways to attack God by inserting various humanistic ideas, such as communism, socialism and many other godless “-isms.” Islam has been upside-down since Abraham, and it strikes back every day with murder. It is possible that any human being could devise his own anti-god idea today and somebody would believe it.

With all these things going on, there is little wonder that a man could believe he should correct the world's problems by killing innocent people. This has been going on since the death of Christ on the Cross. In an upside-down world, you're going to have many upside-down people killing others and dying for their own cause.

What is the answer? Where do you start to resolve the upside-down world? It must start with those who handle the Bible. Preachers must preach what happened at the Cross. They must preach the truth about Christ and His finished work on the Cross. Today is the time; now is the hour—tomorrow is too late.
