

Jim Seward was called Home December 26th. He suffered a heart attack at the breakfast table and was rushed to the hospital but the doctors were unable to save him. The Father wanted His son Home with Him. Please pray for the three sons, two daughters, grandchildren and great-grandchildren and, especially, Lyn, his wife who are left behind. They certainly will feel a great loss; this is the first that Jim and Lyn have been separated for 63 years of marriage.

Jim has been one of our teachers in the Christ-life Fellowship for years. He was a renowned artist and his pictures are displayed in galleries and can be seen in many stores.

Cards may be sent to the family at:

This is a loss for us, personally, for Jim and Lyn have been faithful co-workers and dear friends for years. Warren and Jim had a good conversation on the phone just a little over a week ago -- not knowing it would be their last on this side of the Father's House. Life here on earth is fragile, dear friends.
